Ta law passed last winter to amend the law taxing its, bridge and insurance companies, all the old banks ept such as have a special clause in their charters in the amount,) are required to pay a tax of aix per upon their profits. The Trust Company, the Clin-Bank, the Wooster Bank, and most of the old banks, come under this law, and will hereafter be required by six per cent upon their profits. This will very unitally increase the amount which they will pay to State, and it places the old and new banks upon the stoting of equality.

ne State, and it places the old and new banks upon the ame footing of equality.

The total tax duplicates of the State, in 1845, amounted to $144,169,469. The aggregate of all the taxes assessed for 1845, including State, county, school, township, and road taxes, and all other taxes assessed upon he grand list, amounted to $2,296,500, being 15 mills on the dollar, or one dollar and fifty cents en the hundred dollars of the grand list.

The real property of the State stood upon the tax list of 1846 at $108,185,744, and the personal property at $35,974,725. It is believed that the whole taxable property under the new law will be five hundred millions porty under the new law will be five hundred millions of dollars. Upon this sum a levy of five and a half mills upon the dollar, will raise a tax of two millions seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars. This would be a sum sufficient to meet all the demands for every purpose for which taxes are required to be levied, including State, county, school, township, and road taxes, and every other tax levied upon the grand list. The whole amount of taxes paid by the banks of Ohio this year will not be much less than thirty thousand dollars.

The movements of other departments of the banks of Ohio than those given above, were, on the 4th of May, 1846, compared with February, as annexed:—

SOUTH AMERICA.

BALTIMORE, Tuesday Night. The brig Hebe, from Rio, arrived to-day, having sailed from Rio April 26. The stock of flour was 53,000 barrels, with no sales, there being no demand either for consumption or export. Coffee firm, and good scarce.

Advices have been received from Montevideo to the 7th of April. They state that the black troops had revolted, and taken possession of the town. The government was broken up, the Ministers having resigned. There had been a demand for troops, and quiet was restored in a few days. A temporary government had been astablished.

THE OREGON TREATY.

TARIFF MOVEMENTS. &c. &c.

PROCEEDINGS IN CONGRESS.

In Senate.

WASHINGTON, June 16, 18 THE FINANCES OF THE COUNTRY-WAYS AND MEANS. A message from the President was sent in this morning rith Secretary Walker's report on the finances and the dered necessary by the war with Mexico, can be met by reducing the duties to a revenue standard, imposing da-ties on free articles, and modifying the duties on others. Additional authority is asked for the issue of treasury deficiency in revenue for the next fiscal year at nineteen millions six hundred and twenty thousand dellars, but anticipates receipts from various sources which will reduce this to fifteen millions.

This deficit will also be reduced, if the tariff is modified according to the provisions of the House bill, intro-duced by the Committee of Ways and Means. The entire receipts, with this modification, are estimated at thirty millions, but leaving still the deficiency mentioned of fifteen millions.

The warehouse system proposed, it is estimated, will further reduce this amount, and the graduation of the sales of public lands half a million more, leaving still ver twelve millions deficit.

To meet this the Secretary recommends a resort t loans, or issue of treasury notes, or both, as circumstan-ces may render it most desirable; and at the earliest dates, and at such rates of interest as may be agreed tee on Finance, and ordered to be printed.

An Executive message was also received, which was understood to be the Oregon treaty.

House of Representatives. WASHINGTON, June 16, 1846.

Washingto Mr. McDowell of Ohio moved a suspension of the rules, in order to introduce a resolution embodying a protest against the treaty in progress for a settlement of the Oregon question.

The resolution and preamble assumes that this question proper for the action of the whole Legislative power; for the attempt secretly to adjust the matter while the people and their representatives are ignorant of the terms, would be doing injustice to the rights of the people, and "consummated" no obligatory people, and "consummated" no obligatory force upon them, therefore

"Resolved, That in the opinion of the House, it is the duty of the Senate to postpone further consideration and action upon the same, and submit it to the people for their action and consideration.

The remaining resolutions censure the President and Senate for executive and senatorial supremacy, and for secret conclave, by which to hide their proceedings from the public under the midnight veil.

WASHINGTON CITY, JUNE 15, 1846. Important Intelligence-The Oregon Treaty-The Tarif-Nous Verrons.

The Oregon Treaty was signed by the inter-changing parties at the State Department to-day, at 3 o'clock, on the part of Mr. Buchanan and Mr. Pakenham; so I presume it will be forthcoming immediately to the Senate.

Mr. Allen, Chairman of the Committee of Foreign Affairs, resigned his post this morning. A consultation will be held this evening as to who shall succeed him. Mr. Calhoun, Mr. Benton, Mr. Mangum, Mr. Webster, and Mr. Haywood, are mentioned.

The Tariff Bill was taken up this day in the House by a heavy majority vote of 34. The Northwestern men of the Senate say they will show their strength by voting to checkmate the favorite bill of the South, and kill the Tariff in that body.

The adoption of the Treaty of Oregon, creates new revolutions in all parties, and men and things.

Mr. Walker, the Secretary of the Treasury, said on yesterday to a (54 40) man, of the Senate, (on the subject of the tariff,) that he was "unkorsed."

WASHINGTON, June 16, 1846 The Oregon Treaty-Important Commercial Move

The Treaty was not sent to the Senate yesterday, owing to the resignation of the Chairman on Foreign Relations. The vacancy will be supplied by an election to-day; when the document will be transmitted. It will be necessary to refer it to that Committee, and their reasons for recommending its adoption will be embodied.

We learn that Mr. Walker has recovered from his illness, and will lay his communication relative to the Tariff and Finance before the Senate to-day. It will it is said recommend a duty on teu, coffee, and other articles from twenty to thirty per
